

Integrated Biological Pest Management Practices for Oregon Farms

AUGUST 23-24, 2016

A course for farmers, certifiers, and agricultural professionals

Day 1– Classroom 9 AM-5 PM
NRCS Plant Materials
Center, Corvallis

Day 2 - Field Work 9 AM-3 PM
Kenagy Family Farm &
Persephone Farm

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED!

For online or paper option visit

<https://www.bentonswcd.org/integrated-biological-pest-management-workshop/>

$20 includes 2-days' lunch and transportation to farms

For more information:
tmatteson@bentonswcd.org
541-753-7208

LEARN ABOUT:

- Beneficial insects that prey on pests
- Insect and native plant ID
- Insectary planting designs
- Insectary tips from farmers

GUEST SPEAKERS:

- Rex Dufour, California National Center for Appropriate Technology
- Gwendolyn Ellen, Farmscaping for Beneficials Coordinator, OSU IPPC
- Corvallis PMC staff

Made possible by funds from the USDA, Western Sustainable Ag Research and Education Program and the Oregon Soil and Water Conservation Society. Programs supported by WSARE are equally open to all people.